

Sarawak

Sarawak with its capital city, Kuching, is the biggest state in Malaysia. Sarawak is part of Borneo and stretches along the island's northwest coast. It has many beaches on its coastline with South China Sea. It is known for rugged, dense rainforests of its interior which are largely protected parklands. Kuching is a division of Sarawak with Kuching as its major bustling waterfront city on the banks of Sarawak River. Kuching, the division has many tourist attractions which includes the city of Kuching itself, the Bako National Park, Niah National Park, Mulu National Park, Bario Highlands and Semenggoh Orangutan Sanctuary. Kuching the city, is historically associated with the White Rajahs, and is packed with heritage walk and the Sarawak Cultural Village. Sun, sea and beach lovers will find Damai beach a tranquil attraction. The Rainforest World Music Festival makes its annual appearance in Kuching.

Introduction

Humanities, Society and Tourism International Conference (HUSTINC) will be held in Kuching, Sarawak, Malaysia on 26 and 27 Oct, 2018. HUSTINC is an interdisciplinary international conference that invites academics, independent scholars and researchers and like-minded professionals and students from around the world to meet and exchange their latest ideas and discuss issues concerning all fields in the Humanities and the Social Sciences.

The organizers have planned HUSTINC as an ideal venue and opportunity for academics in the Humanities and Social Sciences to gather, share and impart ideas scholarly with an added respite to leisure and recreation. Thus this inaugural conference will be HUSTINC 2018@Sarawak.

Aims

-create an international forum for scholars to gather, discuss and exchange the latest academic researches on all fields of the humanities and the social sciences.

-provide an international scientific forum for the exchange of new ideas in a number of multidisciplinary fields of the humanities and the social sciences which will act as the impetus for discussions with colleagues from around the world. It is hoped that inward research; core areas of education and social sciences and outward research; multi-disciplinary and interdisciplinary will be covered during the event.

-provide the ideal opportunity to bring together professors, researchers, graduate and post-graduate students of different disciplines, to discuss new issues, and to be able to discover the most recent development in the humanities and the social sciences.

-share best practices and promote international partnership and cooperation among lecturers and professionals from all over the world.
